TREATING AND GIFT-GIVING. Hospitality and Generosity Carried to Excess at Tutuilla.

While Captain Benjamin F. Tilley, commandant of the United States naval station at Tutuila, Samoa, was in Washington recently he submitted to Secretary Long his annual report upon affairs and conditions in that island possession.

Captain Tilley says that the Tutuilians are a gentle, kind, simple-minded people, and that the form of government instituted by the United States has proved very poplar with them. He recounts the numer ous improvements in the system of selfgovernment, which have been suggested to the people, and cagerly agreed to by them. Two of the conditions which needed reform are noteworthy.

"Every once and a while," says Captain Tilley, "a whole village would make up its mind to go on a 'melanga,' or visiting party. All work would be abruptly stopped and all ages and sexes would start out on a wandering holiday. The spirit of hospital-ity is cultivated to an extreme degree among the natives, and at every village vis-ited by the rovers the hosts felt it their bounden duty to entertain lavishity. The visiting party would stay at one village just as long as their entertainers could provide food for them. When supplies ran out they bade hasty adieus and moved on to the next village to be 'entertained.

was not in progress somewhere Another custom was the bestowing of on other occasions, which was carried to such excess that a single wedding often im-poverished a whole village. Both these practices were stopped upon the sugges-tion of Captain Tilley by the natives themselves. Summing up the work of the year in Tutulla, Captain Tilley says that an organized and successful government has been established which keeps the people quiet and happy, and is helping them materially in their journey along the pathway toward

DICKINSON WARNS BULGARIA. Efforts to Save Miss Stone Must Not Be Hampered.

A dispatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, yesterday says: Consul General Dickinson of Constantinople has supplemented his verbal representations to the Bulgarian government by a note today, in which he recapitulates the history of the abduction by brigands of Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, and the steps taken to obtain her release, and reminds the foreign minister of his promise to give every assistance. He cites instances where the attitude of subordinate officials has not conformed with this assurance. Finally, negotiations. Mr. Dickinson quotes from Miss Stone's letters saying that the chief danger to which she is exposed is flight from hiding places by night, owing to the approach of troops. He declares that the people of the United States will hold the Bulgarian government morally and legally responsible for the lives of the captives, should the for the lives of the captives, should the bandits, exasperated by pursuit, slay them. The government's reply, according to the opinion expressed in official circles, will set forth that while hesitating to establish the precedent that the government gives protection to brigands in treating for the ransom of captives, in the present case, involving the safety of two ladies, the government, as an act of courtesy and humanity, will comply with Mr. Dickinson's request.

A private agent who was employed to visit Doubarliza reports that the members of the secret committee were discussing the lowest terms of ransom that would b acceptable.

One member of the committee informed the correspondent of the Associated Press here that he had been invited to join the band and to take part in the kidnaping but that he refusel and deprecated an at committee more in sympathy and support than the value of twenty ransoms. This view seems to be dawning gradually, even in Bulgarian circles, where kidnaping is condoned as in the interest of a sacre

A dispatch from London last night says: an anarchist meeting to "commemorate the legal murder of the Chicago anarchists," prohibited by the police, who were sta-tioned at the various entrances to the half in Clerkenwell, London, and sent away hun-dreds that came to attend the proceedings. Prince Krapotkin, Malatesta and Louise Michel were among the promoters.

An edict of the Chinese government creates Li Hung Chang a marquis, and be-stows on him the new name of Li Wen Chung, by which he will be known in his-
